

SOLOMON'S BELL

Ginn thinks she has problems at home until she magically lands herself in 16th Century Prague. To save her family, Ginn uses her newfound genie powers to transport herself and her friends to 16th century Prague. Only one thing there remains the same as at home: she can't let anyone know what she really is. The Emperor of Prague and those closest to him are obsessed with magic. In pursuit of it, they've waged...

Reader's Opinions

This fun YA Fantasy takes adopted teen genie Ginn Lawson out of her basketball games and crowded suburban house and all the way back to the synagogues and courts of 16th century Prague smack into the middle of the story of the Golem of Prague. Something like a...

I won an ARC of this novel in a goodreads drawing. A teenage girl, who just happens to be a genie, is trying to adjust to her newfound power, when she is sucked into an adventure. Some way or another, she ends up in 16th century Prague, and has to stop...
