Reader's Opinions

This book is a fictional account of a campaign for the U.S. presidency, loosely based on the Clinton campaign of 1992, as told from the point of view of one of the higher campaign...

Joe Klein's most famous work. You have to be at a certain time of your life to like this novel. I was twenty when I read it. I believed in the possibility of the national govt to create change. I was interested by the process of politics. These things made the novel good. Klein also has a great talent for incorporating elements of nostalgia...
