

MORE THAN A GAME

Reader's Opinions

It was good but too short. It reminds me of books such as "Beautiful Disaster;" it could have had the length of that book. I would have loved to see the characters be explored more. There were so much more to tell.
