

FIREWALL

"You got me fired!" "I made more enemies than friends." Justin West is one of the world's most sought-after IT security specialists. His skills as a network penetrator are renowned, but in meatspace he's seen as cold and awkward. His Asperger's makes it hard to be a team player and in a cutthroat industry, enemies abound. Justin is framed for a massive security breach and soon it's not just his job on the line;...

Reader's Opinions

Justin and Calder have been friends since 3rd grade but haven't seen each other in several years. When Justin loses his job under less than ideal circumstances, Calder helps him put his life back together. This is a fairly quick read with characters who feel like a bit disconnected from each other and the story. It's not a bad book,...
