Reader's Opinions

I had forgotten how truly good this book was. It had been a number of years since I read it last but it reminded me how good James Herbert is in the horror genre. One of my favourite books

Another slice of rat violence from James Herbert, this time set in a post-nuclear-strike London. The main story focuses on a group who have made it to the safety(?) of an underground bunker, and how they initially set about surviving the harsh conditions.An...
