Peek Inside the Book

The English seem to think drinking wine is like committing adultery, something you do rarely and abroad.

Reader's Opinions

I should have known better than to read a book with a recommendation by the Daily Mail on the front cover, but wow. I've read some soulless paint-by-numbers books in my...

Nicholson hasn't ever let me down. Motherland for me is rather like a Neville Shute novel written in a modern style and phrasing.
