

FREIGHT DOG: THE DARK SIDE OF AVIATION

Don't worry about your tray table and seat back for this one. Forget what you've been told about the romantic notion of the airline business. It's not like what you've seen in the movies. Buckle your seat belt and join Captain Kimber C. Turner for a flight over a thirty year career of ups and downs in aviation. This story of his love/hate life in airplanes will take you from laughter to livid and back again....

Reader's Opinions

Overall, I liked this book very much. I enjoyed reading this book and hearing this pilot's stories. I have a feeling he has a few more he could tell. I do think it could use just one more edit. But the errors weren't too distracting. It's hard to believe how a successful and growing company could be so stupid. Even a lay person could...
