Peek Inside the Book

The trouble with being a god is that you've got no one to pray to. Terry Pratchett, Small Gods //

Sometimes the crime follows the punishment, which only serves to prove the foresight of the Great God. "That's what my grandmother used to say," said Brutha automatically. "Indeed? I would like to know more about this formidable lady." "She used to give me a thrashing every morning because I would certainly do something to deserve it during the day," said Brutha. "A most complete understanding of the nature of..."

Reader's Opinions

4.5 'If a man lived properly, not according to what any priests said, but according to what seemed decent and honest inside, then it would, at the end, more or less, turn out all right.' Small Gods is the darkest book in this series so far....

Vorbis, malvado dicono y exquisidor mximo de Omnia (Ilustracin de Matt Smith) - <http://ow.ly/ulSko> & <http://ow.ly/ulS6o> El tiempo es una droga. En cantidades excesivas, mata. Lo malo de ser un dios es que no tienes a nadie a quien rezar. Hacen falta cuarenta hombres con los...
