

I BELONG: A NOVELLA INSPIRED BY TRUE EVENTS

Yesterday, Seth was a star engineering student working on a prototype for a national R&D competition. Today, he wanders the halls of a mental hospital. Why? Because he has Asperger's Syndrome, which colors his world brilliant but people dull. The university where Seth is a freshman experienced a deadly bombing a year ago, and the community...

Reader's Opinions

After I read "I Belong" I felt like I knew the characters and I missed hanging out with them! This book is eye-opening and much-needed in our world today; it provides insight on topics such as Asperger's, profiling, and campus violence, to name a few. I look forward to reading more stories by this author!
