

COUNTRY HOUSE LIFE: A CENTURY OF CHANGE IN BRITAIN'S COUNTRY HOMES

Fascinating archive photographs of life in Britain's historic homes between 1860 and 1940, accompanied by lively and anecdotal commentary, provide unique insight into the lives of those who lived and worked in stately homes. Offering an intriguing look at the life that was led in stately homes in the period between the 1860s to the end of World War II, more than 250 wonderfully evocative photographs from the archives of the various properties tell intriguing tales of the owners and their families, their guests, the men and women employed in...
