Reader's Opinions

Joseph and Jeaneane, the twin rebred children of Jole and his Earthborn cross-mate Susan, are now of age. The nobles are all competing to win them by any means necessary, fair or foul. Joseph is determined to do things his way because...

The 1st part of the novel was very good. I would rate it four stars. It does not keep up the same level of excellence for the rest. The author started including a character (appeared 2 x, each time with a scene he was the main character) that did not enhance the story and actually detracted from it because I tried to figure out what...
