Peek Inside the Book

Laughter sometimes hurts us, and sometimes it makes us feel better. No matter how down you feel... laughter brings a new ray of hope. Laughter brings happiness to the home. A smiling face is the best reward you can see. Keiko Tobe, With the Light: Raising an Autistic Child //

I'm always hoping that it will be his last tantrum. Keiko Tobe, With the Light: Raising an Autistic Child //

Reader's Opinions

I liked this second volume better than the first, as you see how the family deals with having a second child and Hikaru continues to grow. The story sucks you in and you just can't put it down as you experience the emotional ups...

Another volume in the series. This one didn't pack as much of an emotional punch as the first one for me, but I found it very interesting as a teacher to see the strategies employed in the special needs classroom. It also did a great job of debunking the whole "special needs teaching is a soft job" assumption that some people seem to...
