

BLACK SUN, RED MOON: A NOVEL OF JAVA

Drama and Tragedy during the Indonesian Revolution.... 'An ambitious, unconventional, compelling saga of men at war, captivity, forced prostitution, murder, political dirty tricks and mob terror in Japanese-occupied and revolutionary Indonesia. Rory Marron's Black Sun, Red Moon gives us an almost tangible glimpse of the chaos that was Java in 1945-46. His writing, infused with imaginative speculation, is sweeping, poignant, passionate and unflinching.' (Publishers Catalogue.)Japan's sudden surrender...

Reader's Opinions

This has been a very interesting read.Set against a fascinating historical period, it is well written, introduces a few solid, likeable characters.My only issue with it is that, like in the case of other stories with numerous point of view, not all are equally interesting. I personally found the female-reporter story and the Scottish...
