Reader's Opinions

Gilroy is excited that his Grandpa is going to watch him while his parents go on vacation until he finds out that Grandpa has a different idea of what good food is. He gets a surprise at every mealtime and refuses to eat any of it. In the end, they both realize that it is good to try new things and they might end up liking it after...

Reviewed by JenJen for Kids @ TeensReadToo.com This was a really funny children's book and reminded me so much of myself when I was younger and my folks tried to get me to sample "different" foods and I wouldn't have any of it. No Way! Our little girl loved the book,...
