Reader's Opinions

Simple and to the point; filled with excellent resources. I'm glad I stumbled on to this book. The book gives information on the different types of jobs in publishing, how to go about preparing to get experience, and how to prepare for getting the job. I will keep this at my...

I was fortunate enough to copyedit this book. I say fortunate because I learned so much about careers in the publishing industry. Siegfried's writing style is informative and interesting. She held my attention with her anecdotes and personal stories. If you're considering a career in publishing or you know someone who is, then this...
