Reader's Opinions

Nothing to write home about. Traps and Trapezes isn't an origin story. It's a revisitation. After spending a year filling in as Batman during Bruce's absence, Dick Grayson returns as Nightwing and relocates to Gotham. He's immediately drawn back into the world of his childhood upon the death of Mr. Haly, owner and operator of Haly's...

This review originally posted at The Improbable Chuck: Canucks on Comics! have a complicated relationship with this character. On one hand he's very charming and very easy to grow attached to. Right from the get go in this volume Kyle Higgins establishes him as a more...
