

THE LIGHT THE DEAD SEE: SELECTED POEMS

Between 1972, when he published his first book, The Signing Knives, and 1978, when he died at the age of twenty-nine, Frank Stanford published seven volumes of poetry. Within a year of his death, two posthumous collections were published. At the time of this death, as Leon Stokesbury asserts in his introduction, "Stanford was the best poet in America under the age...

Reader's Opinions

It's too bad more people don't know about Frank Stanford.

Frank Stanford's poems often bring to mind especially the selections from his first book, The Singing Knives the film The Night of the Hunters specifically the scenes of Willa underwater and John and Pearl's ride down the river. They are both image-rich Southern Gothic with a shared surrealism and otherworldliness. However, the film's composed...
