

THE PAINTED DOG AND OTHER STORIES

In this collection of stories, animals guide and inspire humans struggling to balance their obligations to tradition with their desires for freedom. To protect her community from oppressive conquerors, a young mother risks everything. Unexpected love arrives for a shy girl trapped in a bleak life. A woman flees from a terrifying duty. Questions of faith send a rootless orphan on a...

Reader's Opinions

An enjoyable and highly original collection of stories. The world of "The Dissenters" seemed to me to be the more fully realized, and the three stories set here cut deeper and had (for me) more emotional resonance. But I'd happily return to either world if the authors cared to take me. "The Painted Dog" and "Cat Dreams" were particularly...

The latest story collection from Beth and Emily. The stories are lovely, with fantasy and animal themes set in two separate worlds.
