Reader's Opinions

The best thing about the Phantom Stranger is the mystery. No one knows who he is and no one ever really knows why he appears. This book takes that away by giving him a really stupid origin as Judas Iscariot on a mission of redemption. On top of that, the stories are...

I've always enjoyed how the DC Universe is filled with near immortal alien beings, magical beings, power rings, physical manifestations of pure emotion, New Gods, old gods, a multiverse, and many, many other fantastic things, yet it has always been...
